WEST SIDE EVENTS.

News of the Passage of the West Side Vinduct Ordinance Received with Much Favor.

The news that the West Lackawanna avenue viaduct measure had passed common council at last night's meeting was received with great pleasure by West Siders. The board of trade com-mittee was perhaps the chief rejoicers in the victory, for such it is. The com-mittee has worked hard and success is the sweeter for that reason. It is the greatest stroke ever delivered by the board of trade. But the real battle be-

If the people can be induced to vote for the measure at the coming elec-tion it will be only by hard work on the part of the movers in the matter. The West Side has wanted the viaduct for years and this is the nearest it has yet reached to the proposed improvement. Now for the fight.

Funerals and Deaths.

Daniel Lynch died yesterday at his home in Archbald at the age of 79 years. The deceased was born in this country of Irish-American parents. He was a carpenter by trade and was well known throughout Keyser valley in his busi ness relationship. The funeral will oc-cur Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the deceased's late home.

John Dodge, a highly respected resident of the West Side, died yesterday morning at his home. 125 South Gar-field avenue. He was aged 45 years and was a union soldier, having entered the late war when a very young man. The deceased was a member of Colonel Monies post, Grand Army of the Re public. Among West Siders Mr. Dodge was popular and the news of his death received with surprise and sadness funeral announcement will be made

Big Event Tonight.

St. Brenden council, Young Men's Institute will conduct its second annual social at Mears hall this evening. The event will be a standard for future so-cial events on this side. The council expects about 400 guests and everything is in readiness for their entertainthe store room recently vacated by Fos the store room recently vacated by Fos-ter's hardware store in the Mears build-ing. The Literary circle met last night and held a short but interesting enter-tainment. A debate on "Resolved, that free silver is detrimental to the work-ingman" was decided a tie. NORTH END.

Mrs. John H. Teal left yesterday for a few weeks' sojourn with friends in Brook-lyn, N. Y. Mrs. White and daughter, Maud, are se-riously indisposed at their home, on Oak

On Pittston avenue, at the corner of Palm street, a collision occurred yesterday a little before moon, between a street car and a butcher wagon owned by Thomas Murray of Minooka, and driven by his younger brother. It was not very serious but the escape of the young man in charge of the wagon was extremely fortunate. He was thrown out, but beyond a few slight bruises, was not injured.

The horse was not touched by the car; it is not a fractious animal and was easily curbed from making an attempt to run away. Tom Gallagher was motorman of the car, but he was not at the lever when the accident occurred. There was a new man, just learning, in charge, but Mr, Gallagher was on the front platform with him and both tried their utmost to prevent the collision; on account of the slippery condition of the rails it was impossible to stop the car in time. The damage will not exceede $25.

AN EXONERATION,

AN EXONERATION,

Editor of The Tribune.

Sir:—After Tuesday's convention I was informed by a person, whose name I do not know, that I could credit my defeat in the committee room to Messrs. McGuinness, Stone and Hotel-keeper Gallagher, of the South-Side. Upon informing the above gentlemen of the accusations male against them, they fiatly denied them, and asked to be confronted then with the accuser. I met the gentleman who gave me the information yesterday and when I requested him to meet the gentlemen face to face he told me that he could not say for sure that it was the gentlemen named above who caused my defeat, as he only got it second-handed. I therefore would beg permission through your columns to place Messrs. McGuinness, Stone and Gallagher in the proper light before the people of the South Side and hope the will fully repair all damages done them by the circulation of the rumor. Mr. Stone is the candidate for council in the Eleventh ward and I do not wish to do him any injury by mailcions and false rumors. Neither do I desire that my friends shall construct this as a scheme of mine to further Mr. Stone's interest in this campaign, as I will work shoulder to shoulder with the true Democrats to elect the ticket of this ward nominated by the Democratic caucus of Tribune Almanac 1896 the Eleventh ward, each and every one of them, which I can truthfully say is painfully the reverse with the "Democrat" whom I was thrown down to make ream for. Trusting this is sufficient evidence to satisfy the gentlemen wronged, I remain.

Hardley Estate Will Be Called Upon to Settle a Big Bill of Damages. The cost of the extensive and expensive repairs to the broken sewer main in front of the Wyoming house may have to be paid by the John Handley estate.

Street Commissioner Kinsley's investigation yesterday led him to the conclusion that the damage resulted from a break in an old water pipe connected with the Wyoming house, which has not been used for a number of years, as the water service is now years, as the water service is now taken through a large pipe on the Wy-oming avenue side of the hotel. This pipe was found to be broken and the water which escaped from it, Mr. Kins-ley declares, caused the settling which has been playing such sad havoc with the sewer and the gas and water the sewer and the gas and water mains in that locality.

In select council last night Mr. Chittenden stated that when the cost of the repairs and the damages are ascertained that the Handley estate will be
